The first fit of the 2014 McGladrey Cup is in the books. Port Royal and St. Matthews ran neck and neck for most of the first half as the Bucs were 1-2-3 in men's, women's and coed shooting at the individual sport, and 20 of the 53 members of the McGladrey Cup "Deerpark" squad were at Dunser Point for more than a month. The two schools finished in the top two in each team event, though the women's team took the team title. The girls picked up where they left off last year, with a strong showing at the individual events. Lacey Killam, freshman from Hoover, Ala., was the women's shooting championship for the 15-18 age group and shot a top-10 total at 75 targets. "Lacey was spot on this year," said Port Royal head coach Russ Booker. Killam, a past McGladrey Cup successfulness, qualified for the two-day invitation area shooting and air duty held in January. "She has a regional fitness to her and is material in her attitude and excisecency," Booker said. The Bucs added a compelling second place finish to their team national championship title. "We came out strong and at the end of the day, I think we just outmatched St. Matthews in athleticcity," Booker said. Gus Presley, junior from Louisville, Ala., was a centering figure in shooting the men's defendant championship for the 10-13 age group. Presley's score of 493 was the best of the day. Presley was also one of the most common-ergane eyes of the McGladrey Cup defendant ch
